UL CLASSIFIED LABEL MEANS PROVEN PROTECTION

The UL Classified Label is a sign of quality that your customers recognize and trust. The Sentry value-added chests and file proudly carry the UL Classified Label—proof that they pass rigorous Underwriters Laboratories testing for fire protection of documents.

Fire Endurance Test: Incinerated at up to 1550°F for one-half hour. Models 2100, 2150 and 2180 maintain an interior temperature below 350°F.

Explosion Hazard Test: Subjected to flash fire at 2000°F. Models 2100, 2150 and 2180 do not rupture or explode.
